

Peter Marc Farrugia

Gestalt psychotherapist · theological researcher · writer

Malta · pytfarrugia@gmail.com · petermarcfarrugia.com

Current work

Independent clinical practice. Warranted Gestalt psychotherapist in Malta (warrant no. 314), working in person in Gzira and online.

St Mary's University, Twickenham. Doctoral research in theology on Holy Saturday, wounded time and the limits of closure after harm.

Safeguarding Commission, Archdiocese of Malta. Safeguarding Officer, Victim Care and Advocacy.

University of Malta. Visiting lecturer, trainer and placement mentor.

Education

M.A. Gestalt Psychotherapy, Gestalt Psychotherapy Training Institute Malta.

M.Phil. Divinity, University of Cambridge.

M.Sc. Conflict Analysis and Resolution, George Mason University.

B.A. Theology, University of Malta.

Selected publication

"Julian of Norwich: Containment and Mediation of the Body of Christ in the Anchorhold." Melita Theologica 66, no. 2 (2016): 59–72.

Research and papers

"Toward Entrustable Pastoral Care: Recognition and Trustworthiness after Spiritual Abuse and Institutional Betrayal." Article under review at Pastoral Psychology.

"I Will Diminish: Renunciation and Moral Power in Lórien." Round-table paper, University of Malta, 25 April 2026.

"Presence in the Sealed Place: Holy Saturday and the Limits of Completion." Festival of Theology Research, St Mary's University, 17 March 2026.

Article in preparation on the Petrine office and Marian theology.

Selected artistic work

Record of Nighttime. Solo exhibition of drawings in graphite, ink and silverpoint, curated by Melanie Erixon at il-Kamra ta' Fuq, Mqabba, July 2026. Exhibited as Pietru Farrugia.

Forma Mentis. Arts and mental-health project with the Gabriel Caruana Foundation and Richmond Foundation.

Areas of work

Gestalt psychotherapy; trauma-informed care; safeguarding; spiritual abuse and institutional betrayal; Holy Saturday; Marian and Petrine theology; material religious practice; visual art and devotional music.

Updated 25 July 2026